

Pacific Identities And Well-being: Cross-cultural Perspectives

MARGARET AGEE leads the Counsellor Education Programme in the School of Counselling, Human Services and Social Work at the University of Auckland. With Philip Culbertson and Cabrini Ofa Makasiale, she co-edited Penina Uliluli: Contemporary challenges in mental health for Pacific people in Aotearoa. It is a well-organised, strong section which acknowledges both the intergenerational differences in 'Pacific' identities in Aotearoa and the filling of a significant gap in the cross-cultural and cross-disciplinary literature within the field of Pasifika (Polynesian) and Maori identities and mental health.
